Conditions of Entry

1. All information given on this form should be complete and correct at the time the entry is submitted. You should advise any changes to the Organizer's as soon as possible. This entry covers the named boat only and no refunds will be made if you cancel your attendance.
2. The BCNS reserves the right to refuse any entry without giving any reason.
3. You confirm that you hold third party insurance to indemnity of £1,000,000 (one million pounds)
4. You agree to abide by all relevant licensing requirements of Canal & River Trust whilst the craft is moored at the event. This includes displaying the correct craft license and satisfying the requirements of the Boat Safety Scheme.
5. You agree to comply with the directions of the harbormaster including mooring abreast as required. The decision of the BCNS as to the allocation of mooring and other arrangements is final.
6. Moorings are at the absolute discretion of the BCNS and maybe changed at any time. The BCNS reserves the right to move any boat from the mooring before, during or after the event should the need arise.
- 7 The BCNS will not be held responsible for any loss or damage, other than to which the Organizer's are legally liable as a result of their negligence. You should ensure that you have adequate insurance to cover any accidents or other losses.
8. You agree not to undertake any trading whatsoever from the boat covered by this entry. Exhibition entry forms are available on request.
9. You agree not to leave any litter, or cause pollution to the waterway towpath, the event site or the surrounding area, this includes not discharging any toilets into the waterway and not leaving excrement from pets on the tow-path or surrounding area. Mooring pins to be kept as near to the towpath edge and clearly identified.
10. You agree not to cause a nuisance to other people nearby, whether by excessive noise or any other activity. Engines should only run to charge electrical systems at times given by the harbormaster.
11. You agree not to store on your boat any article of inflammable or explosive character (for example fireworks) other than fuel and lubricants, as allowed for under the Boat Safety Scheme. This is for everyone's safety in the unlikely event of a fire.
12. All information provided by you will be stored in accordance with current legislation. A copy of this information can be made available to you on request to the entries manger.as named below. The Organizer's promise not to sell details to anyone else.
13. The BCNS warns all attendees of the danger of Weil's Disease (Leptospirosis) and other waterborne infection's, but cannot be held responsible should any such disease be contracted whilst attending to or from the event.
14. Boats and crews are responsible for their own safety while participating in the event. Boaters are not under the control or direction of the cruise leader. Everyone is responsible for their own welfare, their own boat, their own decisions and their own health and safety for operating their boats. The organizer's accept no responsibility for damage occasioned to loss from boats and boat crews participating in the event for the damaged caused by participating boats or crews, howsoever the loss or damaged may be caused.
